The Smithfield review will show the true nature and the magnitude of the forces at the disposal in the great task of civilization—undertaken by Europe in the remotest quarters of the globe. England's sympathy with Emperor William marks the close relations and community of interests existing between the two nations.

MR. GLADSTONE'S FOLLOWERS.

LONDON, 31st July.—Lord Bessborough gave an interview to the Home this evening in which he met Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone. Mr. Gladstone was unable to be present. Mrs. Gladstone, responding to the congratulations on her golden wedding, said that her husband was fatigued owing to over-work and was obliged to rest. Sir William Vernon Harcourt, in a speech, denied that the Liberal government had royal grants-in-aid, it is reported, committed suicide after his arrest.

GENERAL BOULANGER AND HIS PARTIZANS.

PARIS, 2nd August.—Le Libre says that Waddington, the French Ambassador at London, has been directed to ascertain whether the English law affords for the exercise of the French Consul as of guilty of crime under the command of.

The manager of Rochester's paper, Truth, who was arrested on the charge of stealing and publishing documents submitted to the High Court of the Senate in the case of Bonnager, was arraigned to-day. He testified that the documents in question had been received from the French Consul.

Le Hierrois, a Bonnagerist leader, and several other adherents of General Boulanger have been summoned to appear in court in connection with the stealing of the evidence given before the High Court of the Senate.

SHAH AND SULTAN.

LONDON, 2nd August.—The proposed visit of the Shah of Persia to Great Britain has fallen through, all because of failure to agree upon the etiquette to be observed on the occasion. The Shah is too high and mighty a personage to go down to do to greet the Shah on his arrival, as other European potentates have done, and the Shah is to be a guest of honor to make his call at the Sultan's Doljongs, so there cannot be any visit, and the Shah or his retinue will give a Constantinople a wide berth.

SABA BEHRAM AND HER DIAMONDS.

NEW YORK, 27th July.—A London cablegram to the Standard says that Saba Behram has gone to a cabaret on Tuesday. The tragedian, who is playing at the Lyceum Theatre, took a hansom after the performance for her hotel, carrying several thousand dollars worth of diamonds with her. She is not, but not, a well-known, taking the outfit of the Shah when she reached her destination. She discovered her loss next day and flew to Scotland Yard, where she was met with a transport of delight upon the arrival of the cabman who had handed her property over to the police. When the famous Saba learned, however, that under the English laws she could not recover the diamonds, she called down a vengeance of abuse upon the framers of the plan, and the police, and then demanded to see the Chief of Police. When she was told that that officer could only be seen by appointment she raved anew. "What?" she demanded, "I can see the Prince of Wales without appointment; why not the Chief of Police?" Threats and entreaties proved alike of no avail. She went to her lawyers, who effected a compromise, whereby she paid the cabman £200, and the diamonds were returned to her.

ANCIENT MEXICAN RUINS.

MEXICO, 1st August.—Explorers in the State of Chiapas confirm the reported discoveries of an archaeological matter. Roads built by the prehistoric inhabitants were found, and the ruins of cities with an estimated total population of 30,000 were discovered.

The houses are of a pyramidal form of architecture, and indicate a high degree of scientific attainment. The carved male and female figures appear plainly of the Egyptian style. The locality was undoubtedly densely populated.

A SEA SERPENT TARN.

PANAMA, 1st August.—Captain William F. Smith of the bark Nauticus reports that when off Cape Berkeley, Galapagos, a sea serpent was seen about thirty yards from the vessel. Captain Smith estimated the serpent's length at fifty feet and he was about as large around as a man's waist, the thickest part.

The head was shaped like that of a snake's only in the extreme and of the upper jaw there was a ridge or bunch. The head was about three feet in length and about two feet back of the head was a mane of hair. No fine scales were visible on the head, and it was shaped like the oil of oil.

The Captain and Mate landed to examine the bunched head, and for about fifteen minutes there was quite a circus, the serpent lashing the water with his tail and raising his head out of the water five feet. As last he ran out his head whistled around and sank dead.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

LONDON, 27th July.—Mary Anderson gives a birthday party tomorrow at her home in Holland Park. Several Americans will send flowers. Miss Anderson's physician says she is improving daily.

There is a well-founded report here that Editor Stoddard will soon sail for America to get some ideas on our style of journalism. On his return he will take charge of a new Radical half-penny morning paper for London. The money is all raised.

LONDON, 28th July.—The British Columbia Gold Dredging Company has registered with a capital of £100,000, in order to purchase Gibson's rights to dredge for gold in forty-five miles of the Fraser River.

LONDON, 29th July.—The Financial News states that the new Anglo-Canadian Cable Company has applied to the Canadian Government for a guarantee of £1,000,000 of the proposed issue of its bonds. The news says this guarantee will insure the raising of the requisite capital.

LONDON, 31st July.—Admiral Thos. Ballis of Weymouth died this morning at Kelso. The Admiral joined the naval service shortly before the battle of Navarino, in which he took part, being a lad of 15 years, and for which he received the Naval medal. In the Crimean war the Admiral commanded the British fleet in the White Sea, and succeeded in blockade the Russian fleet. He was an uncle of the Earl of Haddington, husband of Lord Powis.

LONDON, 31st July.—In the Royal Yacht regatta at Southampton to-day the Valleyfield led all the way, the Yeruna second, the Deerhound third.

From the historian has written a letter denouncing the first of the reports that he had come to London to speak. Mr. Gladstone's policy is only a grudging rush of sentiment, suggested, as always by some cold, dry English party politics. It is the worst and most scandalous in English history."

LONDON, 2nd August.—Archbishop Walsh has publicly denounced the Gaelic Athletic Association.

Schindler, the leader of the English Catholics, is dying.

DUBLIN, 31st July.—The Express says: The sum of the Parochial indemnity fund exceeds £10,000. Only £20,000 have been used.

GLASGOW, 1st August.—The extensive Cross Chemical Works are in full blast, and the loss will be very heavy. The inflammatory chemicals spread the fire very quickly, and most of them are burning.

The damage already done is over £100,000. Mr. Gladstone's distillery, which is near the burning building, is in great danger. A great flood of hot water is pouring from the chemicals into the canal, and the whole locality is filled with suffocating fumes.

PARIS, 31st July.—The Shah of Persia in his wandering in Paris to-day bought a black diamond for £30,000.

PARIS, 1st August.—Brunet, the liquidator of the Panama Canal Company, informs the shareholders that a financial syndicate has taken on the whole amount of the lottery bonds, on terms which he does not reveal, and if the enterprise perishes the law of bankruptcy will enable him to distribute the money among the creditors.

PARIS, 2nd August.—The American Art Association has paid M. P. 500,000 francs for Mihet's picture, "The Angelus," which was bought at the Sevreau sale.

BRUSSELS, 29th July.—The Congo Railway Company will be regularly constituted here Wednesday. Of the proposed capital of 25,000,000 francs the Belgian State has subscribed 10,000,000 francs and the founders 500,000 francs. Public subscriptions will soon be opened simultaneously at Brussels.

London and Paris for 10,000,000 francs. It is believed here that it will be impossible for the King of the Belgians to obtain a loan from pecuniary sacrifice for the benefit of the Congo State, and that the assistance of the Belgian Government will soon become necessary in order to conduct the enterprise to a successful issue.

ROME, 27th July.—The Vatican and Quirinal are doubly guarded in respect of the preparation of a plot to blow up the Pope. It is said that the departure of the Pope may be easily detected.

ROMA, 28th July.—It is rumoured that the projected International Sugar Bank will probably be refused permission to establish a branch in Germany. The irritation over the fall of the International Sugar Convention is strong here.
